NAMES.

A. ρλοι.
G. Ἐρπυλλον.
L. Serpillum.
I. Serpillo.
G.
F. Surpollet.
S. Serpolio.
D. Quendel.

MOTHER of THYME.

PLACE.

This wild Thyme Grows on Heaths.

DESCRIPTION.

This Plant has a Brown fibrous Root 1. from which ing woody Stalks 2. of a Deep purplish red, with small Dark Leaves 3. growing by pairs crossing each other: The Flowers 4. gro round the Stalks, one round above another forming a Spike. Th Rib'd and of a dark Green inclining to a Purple, divided into upward and two downward. The Flowers 6 are a Bright re Styles in the Cups 5. are white approaching to Purple toward Chives in the Flowers 7. are white with Summits and Farina lour: the seed Vessel is very small in the Cup and Gre

VIRTUES

This Plant has a gratefull Aromatic Scent .

T. Sheldrake delin .